Bill, Sorry to have missed you when I called today. I left a voice mail message saying the proposed participate and cooperate agreement would be sent you today, along with a letter explaining the need to move promptly, which urgency stems from this activity requiring third party dealings. Owing to various travel and vacation schedules, I won't be able to send same until Monday. I'd actually called principally to urge that we have a meeting Tuesday so that we can discuss Occidental's good faith offer, given the need to move without delay. I hope you'll be able to arrange same at a time and place of your convenience. Thank you, Carol
